

Update on Patent Information Services at CNIPA

1. Patent documentation information public service

◆CNIPA provides Patent documentation library and Online services (CNIPA website home page > service > public service > documentation service > patent documentation consultation desk) to public.

2. Patent information training

2.1 Public lecture

◆Overview: Free lectures to the public which launched in 2006, started to provide online classes with real-time online live streaming of lectures in 2014, and set up an online learning platform to provide on-demand video service for previous lectures in 2017.

◆Training target: provide the public with equal opportunities for universal education of intellectual property.

◆ Training content: basic knowledge of intellectual property, patent, trademark, geographical indication, integrated circuit layout, etc.

◆ Training language: Mandarin

2.2 Patent information training oriented to specific objects

◆ Working basis

✧ 12 national patent information dissemination and utilization bases

✧ 120 units of the national patent document service network

✧ Over 1300 patent information talents

✧ 101 TISCs

✧ 80 University-based national IP information service centers

✧ 40 IPR protection centers

✧ 22 Fast-track IPR enforcement centers

◆ Method

✧ Carry out classified training courses for innovators, service institutions, patent information talents and other objects through online and offline training

◆ Course system

- ✧ Based on the training needs in society, we carry out research and formulate the framework of the course system

3. Support to patent information utilization

3.1 Support innovators to utilize patent information in multiple ways

◆ For enterprises: patent search, patent portfolio planning, risk analysis

◆ For universities: track technological information, boost technology transfer

3.2 Guide to utilization of patent information resources on the Internet

◆ Introduction of public patent search systems and database of certain subject

4. Work experience and typical cases promotion

4.1 Strengthen the understanding of innovators' needs and the summarization of work experience

- ◆Publicize good practices by public lectures

4.2 Exchange and promotion of patent information dissemination and utilization

- ◆Collect literature resources in intellectual property system, typical cases and working models of patent information dissemination and utilization